HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the 100th anniversary of the General James Cox Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Whereas, The General James Cox Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution was founded on April 15, 1905, by Mrs. Nannie L. Ross;

Whereas, The chapter was the 20th chapter to be issued a charter in Indiana and received charter number 682;

Whereas, In 1924, the chapter arranged for the installation of a flagpole and marker in Foster Park in Kokomo, which was dedicated to "patriots of 1776, both civil and military, who gave us our country, our flag, and our Constitution", as well as to the veterans of the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, and World War I;

Whereas, In 1993, the flagpole was rededicated to include the veterans of World War II, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, and all the brave men and women who have fought in defense of our country; the rededication also included raising a new 10' by 15' flag to replace the previous 3' by 5' flag;

Whereas, In 1996, the chapter sponsored the Chief Peshewa Society of the Children of the American Revolution;

Whereas, The chapter regularly sponsors and participates in Memorial Day services and provides gifts to the United States military, scholarships, "Good Citizen" awards to selected students at Howard County schools, and savings bonds to winners of the American History and Christopher Columbus essay contests; in addition, the chapter annually presents a local teacher with the American History Teacher Award; and

Whereas, April 15, 2005, marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of the General James Cox Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- 1       SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly honors the 100th
- 2       anniversary of the General James Cox Chapter of the National Society
- 3       of Daughters of the American Revolution.
- 4       SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of
- 5       Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Jacqueline Hunt,
- 6       regent of the chapter.
